Gentlemen:

Recently representatives of the Federal Environmental Protection Agency, the Rhode Island Department of Environmental Management, and state and local police officials undertook an investigation of the Robert E. Derecktor Shipyard for alleged illegal disposal of hazardous waste. Inasmuch as the Robert Derecktor Shipyard is located on Navy property subleased through the Rhode Island Port Authority and Economic Development Corporation under U.S. Government Lease Number N62427-79-RP-00171, the U.S. Navy has a vested interest in the results of the investigation, particularly as related to paragraph 35 of the lease. As the lease administrator, pursuant to paragraph 33 of the lease, request you provide Commander, Naval Education and Training Center with a copy of all documents issued to you as lessee or to the Robert Derecktor Shipyard as sublessee regarding the alleged violation, and all future related documents until this matter is satisfactorily resolved.

Sincerely,

PETER S. CORR, JR.
Captain, USN
